Second circular and call for papers

Dear colleagues and friends,

This is the second general circular concerning the 15th International Saga Conference 2012 at Aarhus University. We very much look forward to welcoming researchers as well as students to Aarhus to what we are certain will be a venue for stimulating discussions.

In this second circular, we wish to give more information about the conference, including the call for papers (see below). We also want to direct your attention to the conference website www.sagaconference.au.dk for further details.

Keynote lectures at the 15th International Saga Conference will be held in the Great Hall ('Aulaen'), and parallel sessions and posters in the Auditoriums at Theology. There will be four keynote lectures (45 minutes including discussions), and we plan for up to five parallel sessions (30 minutes for each paper, up to 20 minutes for the presentation and 10 minutes for discussion), for a number of poster presentations and for two roundtable discussions. A pre-liminary program can be seen on the conference website.
